

PENNSYLVANIA ASSOCIATION
OF PROFESSIONAL SOIL SCIENTISTS
2009 SUMMER TECHNICAL SESSION
JULY 9, 8:00 AM

Milford Township Building, Spinnerstown, PA

“PROBLEM SITE DRIP SYSTEM INSTALLATIONS”

| | |
|----------------------|---|
| 8:00 – 8:45 | REGISTRATION |
| 8:45 – 9:00 | INTRODUCTION |
| 9:00 – 10:00 | Soil Survey Updates in Southeastern Pennsylvania John Chibirka – USDA-NRCS |
| 10:00 – 10:30 | Common Problems and Concerns in Drip Installations in Pennsylvania Joe Valentine – PAPSS / POWRA |
| 10:30 – 10:45 | BREAK |
| 10:45 – 11:15 | Drip Systems – Problem Installations from a Regulatory Perspective Darryl Fritz – DEP-NERO |
| 11:15 – 11:45 | Drip System Loading Rates Tom Ashton – American Manufacturing Company |
| 11:45 – 12:15 | Perspective from Another State – Drip Installations in Delaware Russ Losco – PAPSS Member and Delaware Licensed Class D Soil Scientist |
| 12:15 – 1:15 | LUNCH – At Picnic Pavilion across street from Township Building |
| 1:15 – 2:15 | Field Demonstration of Drip System Layout and Different Drip Installation Techniques |
| 2:15 – 2:30 | Travel to site that has soils suitable for a drip installation, but is not suitable for a drip system due to trees and surface stoniness (approximately 2 – 3 miles away) |
| 2:30 – 4:00 | Discussion at site of key, practical issues that Soil Scientist, Designer, and, SEO should account for in the installation of such a system |